FARMVILLE.

Our people are interested in the extension of the C. & O. system from Rosney to our town, but are going slow. Messrs. Davidson, Paulett and Stokes, the committee of business men appointed to look into the matter, will give it careful and intelligent consideration and their report is looked forward to with interest.

There is a feeling of genuine satisfaction pervading the town now that the rumor as to the Tidewater has been quieted. Lunenburg must have that Victoria and all Southside Virginia must enjoy the thrill of a new business enterprise, especially one of that magnitude.

A very intelligent Canadian was here recently looking over our lands and I regret that he was not induced to buy. If the men who come into our midst with the view of locating would only visit and talk with our successful farmers, I believe they would be induced to buy. The truth is that many of them come, to get cheap lands and are simply disappointed with their geneasily unkept and uninviting appearance. It is no extravagance of speech to say that Southside Virginia is the "garden spot" and the outside world can be made to know and appreciate the fact.

Farmville is rather slow with her street and side walk improvement. That surplus of dispensary money ought to put them in perfect order.

It looks as if we were to have a quadruple hanging. The murderers of that good man, Grubb, deserve no mercy, certainly not of men.

The old Randolph hotel has been sold to a syndicate, and will be remodelled and made first class in all its appointments. The wonder is that this has not been done long ago. If finished and furnished as I hope it will be, Farmville will be proud of her "Jefferson."

Some newspaper writer of recent date criticised unfavorably the health record of our town, and he must have been guorant or actuated by "malice. Hampden-Sidney our next-door neighbor has the most wonderful health-history on record and Farmville comes next The venerable college has been in operation 130 years, and though it has had an average of more than one hundred students each session, during all that time only one of them has died from disease, and that one reached the institution with the fever on him, went at once to bed and died in nine days. Farmville has its "City of the dead" and death does now and then invade her household, but that it is an unhealthy place is wide of the truth. I have been living here for the past 9 years and never knew so much as endemic to say nothing of an epidemic.

Rev. Mr. Macfarland, the popular pastor of the Baptist church, will soon go to Louisville to prosecute his theological studies for a term of two years. Rev. Mr. Tyler, of that city has been occupying the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here of late.

Mr. B. M. Cox has just returned from his annual fishing outing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Berkley, of Berkley, are boarding with Mrs. W. R. Berkley. Mr. Berkley brought his favorite dog with him and will be ready for the hunting season.

The First National Bank is making wonderful progress. Its deposits now amount to $277,335.03 and loans to $328,193.47. No mean showing that and yet there were some people in Farmville, a few years back who actually contended there was no room in the town for another bank.

The "scursion," water melon season is upon us and the "cullurd" brother is happy.

Our "soldier boys" are looking forward to the outing by the seaside with much pleasure. Captain Hunt and his associates deserve great credit for maintaining a military organization in our town, an essential importance, and rest in a brass band has languished and I fear will not be revived. In this we have made a mistake—"Music hath charms."

Capt. Strother frequently rides over the Tidewater & Western in a railroad automobile, and he "fairly flies."

Peaches are scarce in our market and very high. The home supply is inconspicuous by its absence.

Capt. Booker, of the Cumberland bar, has instituted suit with damages claimed for $10,000 against the Tidewater & Western in behalf of an alleged white female client, who was made to ride in a car devoted to colored persons. Mr. Henry Atkinson, of the Richmond bar will be associated with him. The defense, I am told, will be based on the old adage, "birds of a feather will flock together."

Dr. Beckham will build a handsome residence on High Street.

Rev. Mr. Hank, presiding Elder, preached the first sermon before the Methodists in the Episcopal church. With the exception of Rev. Hatcher of the Methodist church, all our preachers are out on vacation. Farmers and factory hands, merchants and mechanics, doctors and ditchers still on duty.

T. A. Bolling, a worthy colored man, who makes and lays well nigh all the bricks used in the building of our new structures, and they have been legion in the recent past, tells me that his expenses have doubled while his prices remain the same. He sands that a few years back he commanded 75 cents a day now demand $1.50. In this he agrees with Mr. Joseph Bryan, of Richmond who made a similar remark to the authorities of henrico county.

Mr. H. K. Cowan, who works in the Herald office has spent his life with the types. When a mere lad he entered the service of his honored father, who for so many years conducted the newspaper business here, ar d has been at it ever since, most of the time in Farmville, having for a short time worked in Lynchburg. I never knew his equal for 'diligence in business' save in the history of an older brother who died some years ago, honored and respected, trusted and beloved by all who knew him.

I have just been told by a prominent business man that Col. R. T. Ubard's railroad scheme of the Orange-Keysville was taking on new life. If ever a man deserves success he does.

I have great sympathy as well as respect for bank officials. No business men are so loaded with responsibilities nor so vexed in their souls. I hope to meet them all in heaven after we have crossed over the river."

How to Avoid Appendicitis

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and it is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys: if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

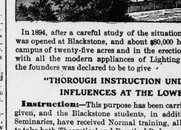
THE BLACKSTONE SCHOOL FOR GI



In 1894, after a careful study of the situation, a Christian Training School was opened at Blackstone, and about $80,000 has been expended in the purchase of the campus of twenty-five acres and in the erection of a massive brick building with all the modern appliances of Lighting, Heating, Sanitation. The founders was declared to be to give

"THOROUGH INSTRUCTION UNDER POSITIVE CHRISTIAN INFLUENCES AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE COST."

Instructions—This purpose has been carried out. Thorough instruction is given, and the Blackstone is in addition to the regular instruction in the Seminaries, have received Normal training, all applicants for diploma must have to take both Theoretical and Practical Pedagogy, including actual teaching in the School. The Blackstone certificate or diploma is recognized by educators as to what it says, and about five hundred teachers have shown the practical work of the school.

Character—But at Blackstone, character is regarded as the student's most possession, and boarding school life is known to be a critical time in the formation of character. The greatest aim of the Faculty is to direct and stimulate the life of the character of the students committed to their care. Direct contact of the with the teacher is one of the greatest factors of the school life, and no one at Blackston all live in the building with the girls, and meet them not in class-room, but in every relation of the school life. The atmosphere of the wholesome, inspiring, and uplifting, and the influences are positively Christian.

Cost—The cost is less than at any other school in the State of equal grade hundred and fifty dollars ($150) per session pays for Board, Laundry, Medical and Tuition in all departments of Science and Education, which rates are at correspondingly low rates. It has been the aim from the beginning to keep student body sufficiently large to give to parents the benefit of low rate for instruction, but not too large for the Principal and his helpers to know each and to give her individual care. This result has been attained. If you want better to have Boorings Instruction under positive Christian influences at the lowest write for catalogue to

JAMES CANNON, Jr., A. M., Blackst

For the next session, twenty scholarships, worth $75.00 each, will be young ladies who are unable to meet the full expenses of the school, but are ciently anxious for an education to be willing to assist the housekeeper in the dining-room.

"And I Will Give You Rest."

In a Galilean city
In the Jewish promised land.
A crowd was thronging, pressing,
Round a small devoted band.

And the kind eyes of the Master
Overlooked this troubled throng,
Sick from sin, disease and misery
And oppression, hard and long.

Old men brought low with palsy,
Children, lame and blind and lame,
Young men torn with dumb devils,
All these to the Master came.

Women with life long standing,
A touch would ease their pain,
Their tears and suffering bodies
Would grow straight and strong again

And the foul despised lepers,
Wretched in a living death,
They were murmuring, moaning, crying
"Unclean" with every breath.

In their midst a man was standing,
Healing, blessing, comforting,
From the sun crowned hills of Judah
From the town of Bethlehem.

These unhappy sons of Israel,
Sin cursed men from o'er the land,
How their crowd and jostle round Him
Just to touch His holy hand.

Just to touch His sacred garments,
As they knew 'twould make them whole:
As man worships now His spirit,
For salvation of the soul.

When He stretch'd His arms above these
(These men to their master led)
Every ear was strained to listen,
To the blessed words He said.

"Come unto me!" He's crying,
While great pity filled His breast.
"All ye are heavy laden,
And I will give you rest."

This has echoed down the ages,
Many a heart with rapture thrills
As the hearts of those that morning
From the Galilean hills.

And a noble host of martyrs,
To these words a tribute bring,
Singing while the flames are roaring,
Or the beasts about to spring.

Meeting death with tranquil faces,
With an earnest peace and deep
Smiling when the stones were lifted
As when Stephen fell asleep.

And men like Paul and Peter,
And John, believ'd, best,
Loved and died with the conviction
That he would give them rest.

And the Master meek and lowly
Gave to life for you and me.
Bless the words that He has spoken
At Nain in Galilee.

Uncle Billy

Buckingham.

Protracted services are in progress at the Baptist church here this week, the pastor, having Rev. Mr. Ryan to assist him. Mr. Ryan preached two good sermons on Sunday, the 1st was from the text, "Wilt thou not revive us again, that thy people may rejoice in thee—Psa 85-6. The speaker in opening this revival meeting said we needed three kinds of revival, 1st a material revival, which would show itself oftimes in keeping in good repair the house of worship; 2nd a moral revival that will lead us to live pure and moral lives, (he emphasized the fact that morality alone would not save a soul) and 3rd a spiritual revival, and he called on those who wanted such a revival to kneel and pray for such, to make it known. The sermon in the afternoon was from Malachi 3-10 "And prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it." The speaker paused at one stage of his preaching and asked the question, What is our absent blessing? That we should hunger and thirst after righteousness, to feel such a longing for the right, as we experience when we are in immediate want of material food and drink. A call for professing christians to come up and shake hands with the ministers disclosed the fact that a large percentage of the congregation professing christians, but many of them are working christians and this may be the beginning of a glorious revival of religion in our midst.

This correspondent writes such a bad hand that many inaccuracies occur when these letters are printed, but I will try to do better and the printer will read it better when he becomes used to the bad writing

New Wholesale Dry Goods House.

The wholesale business in Richmond is growing like the proverbial bean stalk. In an interview published in this paper not a great while ago a well known wholesale dry goods merchant said he and all the men are firms engage in his line of business here would welcome more first-class wholesale dry goods houses. He declared there was room for more, and the larger the number of drummers going out from Richmond to sell goods to the retail merchants of the South the greater would be Richmond's reputation as a jobbing centre, and the larger the volume of business brought here the better it will be for all.

Another first-class up-to-date wholesale dry goods house is soon to throw its banner to the breeze. The house will contain four stories and basement, will cover a lot 104 feet front by 115 feet deep, and will be equipped with all modern conveniences, having electric passenger and freight elevators, a private telephone system, connecting the various departments with the general offices, and both gas and electric fixtures for lighting purposes.

The entire building will be lighted by windows on all four sides. These windows, numbering 146, will be woven wire, quarter glass with metal frames, automatically arranged, thus doing away with the necessity of unsightly and troublesome tin shutters, and at the same time reducing the insurance to the minimum. The entire lower front will be of plate glass, and the office arrangements complete in every detail. This building will be completed by November 1st, and will probably be the finest and best arranged in the South for the use intended.

The members of the firm of Anderson Lewis Gray Company are active young men, who are thoroughly competent and experienced.

Messrs M. M. Anderson and V. L. Epes, were formerly of the firm of Mosby, Wilkinson & Anderson, who did a successful wholesale business in this city. Mr. T. L. Anderson was for many years connected with the same firm, but more recently with one of the large commission houses in New York City. Messrs. Lewis and Gray are West Virginians and are largely interested in the banking, mining and mercantile interests of that fast developing state, in which they are taking a leading part.

The firm will carry a complete line of dry goods, notions and ladies and mens furnishings, and will have a large corps of traveling salesmen covering the States of Virginia, W. Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, N. Carolina, S. Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The members of this firm already have a large personal acquaintance with the merchants throughit this territory, and with their experience and knowledge of the business, their success is already assured.

The Messrs. Anderson have been in the New York market for some time, placing orders with domestic and foreign manufacturers, as they will carry in their immense stock merchandise of all grades, and will be in position to supply the wants of merchants who handle cheap, medium or high-class merchandise. The traveling force, which they have already gotten together, insures a corps of representive, hustling salesmen, of which Richmond as a market may be proud. Every man connected with the new concern will be an experienced, active worker, and their motto will be: "Hard Work and a Square Deal," which means success in any line of business.

Messrs. Lewis and Gray are well known Buckingham boys and they are fine business men.

In Old Dinwiddie.

Dear Times—The continued rains are beginning to effect the corn and tobacco crops somewhat, but not to serious damage as yet. Sunday, Monday and yesterday the rainfall was very heavy. Within the bounds of my present are some of the largest fields of upland corn I have seen in Virginia. The tobacco crop is very fine. One of my stewards has 22 acres in pounage, which he expects to yield 30 bushels to the acre. The same steward, Walter H. Young, recently presented me with a barrel of flour and two nice pigs. He is one of the most progressive and successful farmers of the county. He owns four good farms, and is proprietor of Moore's Warehouse in Petersburg.

We recently closed the fourth protracted meeting on my circuit At Corinth we were assisted by Rev. J. B. Askew, of Brunswick. The hearers of two conversions and three valuable additions to the church. It rained every day and hindered the work of the meeting. At White Oak, one of my best churches, we were assisted by Rev. LeRoy J. Phapp, an old Buckingham boy now serving Capran circuit. Phapp is one of the most successful revivalists in our Conference. As a result of the meeting there were forty conversions and thirty-two additions to the church. The work of the circuit prospers. One church will make extensive repairs next spring, costing about $250. They have about $75 in hand and last Sunday in about 20 minutes secured in good subscriptions $50 more. We serve a loyal, liberal people.

Tomorrow, 16th, Corinth Sunday School will hold its annual picnic. This is our home church, and we anticipate a pleasant time.

Next week I will be in Brunswick assisting Rev. J. B. Askew in a meeting. The week following the fourth Sunday I will be in Southampton assisting Rev. LeRoy Phapp, and the week of the fourth Sunday in September I go to Amelia to assist Rev. J. O. Moss, so you see, I keep busy.

Your work in the interests of good roads and better schools ought to be greatly appreciated, and doubtless is. I wish you abundant success. P. M. BELL.
